

GorillaPod Original™

JOBY's original, best-selling flexible tripod has gotten a makeover! Available in 4 bright new colors, the GorillaPod Original lets you position your point & shoot camera anywhere to capture the perfect shot. Featuring the award-winning flexible leg joints, the GorillaPod Original can wrap around a railing or perch on a rock, stabilizing your camera to capture crisp photos. It's lightweight, strong, and versatile—perfect for shooting on-the-go. The options are endless with the GorillaPod Original!

Product Features & Benefits

- Capture better perspectives: flexible, wrappable joints secure camera to objects and position the camera at any angle to frame the perfect shot
- Stability on any surface: rubberized ring/foot grips allow you to capture crisp photos, even in low light
- Reliable performance: over 80 plastic compounds tested over a year to identify the best materials for optimal feel and durability; can support up to 7x its weight
- Portable: flexible and lightweight legs allow you to easily store and carry when on the go
- Quick setup: quick-release clip stays connected to your camera
- Peace of mind: lock ring ensures your camera is safely attached
- Intuitive: flexible legs make it easy (and fun!) to use
